

New Vet Starts In January

Recruiting a new vet has been in response to the steady growth in client numbers at the practice. With one vet only we have unfortunately had to limit our new client registrations for some time now.

Richard Kirby did some locum cover for us in September and October and liked us enough to want to come and join us.

In anticipation of Richard's arrival in January we are now registering more patients. We would be delighted to be recommended to family and friends and can now assure them of a positive welcome to the practice.

Large enough to cope, small enough to care

Our team has grown but we aim to maintain the friendly and approachable way in which the practice is run and to offer the same high level of service that we set out to achieve.

Vets: Ernest Armstrong and Richard Kirby
